12:00 PM

Register to receive the livestream link prior to the event.

As states across the country loosen their laws on marijuana, momentum is gaining for a medical plan in Wisconsin.

Assembly Republicans unveiled legislation this month that would allow residents with chronic diseases to access the drug from state-run dispensaries. But Senate Republicans have been less receptive to the concept and Democrats are pushing for full legalization.

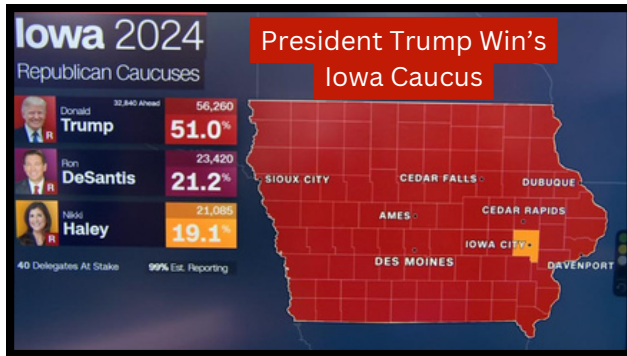

Meanwhile, the state's doctors say there hasn't been enough research on its efficacy.

A Wisconsin Health News virtual panel will examine what's next for medical marijuana in the state and what impact it could have on patients.

Why Conservatives Embrace Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Timeless Message [WRN VOICES]

This Jan. 15, we celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Martin Luther King Jr. Day is commemorated on the third Monday of the month and has been a federal holiday since 1983, when President Ronald Reagan signed the overwhelmingly bipartisan legislation adopted by Congress. On this 41st anniversary of the holiday, it is a good time to reflect on the life, legacy, and lessons of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and why conservatives continue to embrace his timeless message.

We Still Have a Dream

When you think of Martin Luther King, what is the first thing that comes to mind? If you are like many, it is his iconic "I Have A Dream" speech. Over a quarter-million people of all races gathered in Washington, D.C. to hear Dr. King passionately describe his vision of a race-neutral republic. When we listen to his speech given on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, we hear King in that powerful cadence of a Southern preacher proclaim, "I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

Martin the Woolly Mammoth Comics

A phone banker calls a voter that really, really HATES the candidate. The voter goes into a five minute rant ending with: "And if your guy gets elected I don't know whether I will kill myself, or leave the country!" The poller says: "OK, I will put you down as 'undecided.'"

First Vice Chair Brett Galaszewski speaking at America Fest in Arizona

January 10, 1776 - Common Sense, a fifty page pamphlet by Thomas Paine, was published. It sold over 500,000 copies in America and Europe, influencing, among others, the authors of the Declaration of Independence.

THIS MONTH IN HISTORY

January 8, 1815 - The Battle of New Orleans occurred as General Andrew Jackson and American troops defended themselves against a British attack, inflicting over 2,000 casualties. Both sides in this battle were unaware that peace had been declared two weeks earlier with the signing of the Treaty of Ghent ending the War of 1812.

January 4, 1790 - President George Washington delivered the first State of the Union address.

January 1, 1863 - The Emancipation Proclamation by President Abraham Lincoln freed the slaves in the states rebelling against the Union.

THIS MONTH IN HISTORY CONTINUED...

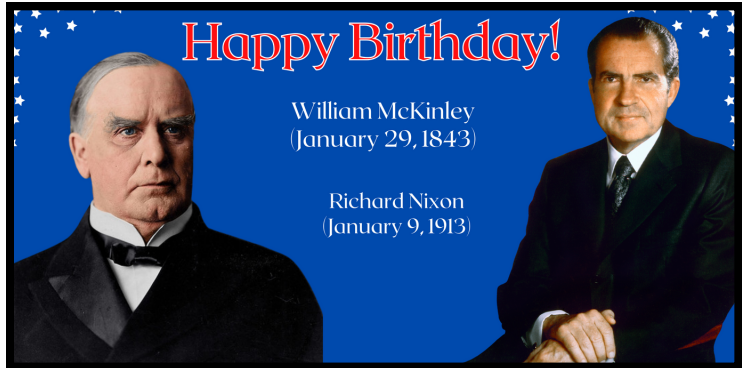

January 28, 1986 - Remembering the Challenger: The U.S. Space Shuttle Challenger exploded 74 seconds into its flight, killing seven persons, including Christa McAuliffe, a teacher who was to be the first ordinary citizen in space.

January 23, 1907 - Charles Curtis of Kansas became the first person of Native American ancestry to serve in the U.S Senate. He later served as vice president under President Herbert Hoover from 1929-33.

January 5, 1972 - President Richard Nixon signed a bill approving $5.5 billion over six years to build and test the NASA space shuttle.

AR 18 Faces Additional Misinformation

Rep. Brandtjen (414) 915-8425

Madison – State Representative Janel Brandtjen released the following statement on the initial resolution (AR 18) to impeach Meagan Wolfe:

“AR 18 is not a bill; it’s a non-binding resolution and is the first step in impeaching Meagan Wolfe. It has faced additional hurdles as Speaker Vos and Representative Steffen have created obstacles by pretending that the resolution requires a committee hearing or committee vote. Resolutions can go directly to the floor for passage but are only sent to committees when leadership wants them to die. Once again, Robin Vos is doing everything he can to protect Meagan Wolfe. It’s a shame that the misinformation continues instead of addressing the chief election officer in Wisconsin, who has repeatedly broken the law without consequences.

God bless the State of Wisconsin in 2024 as Republicans refuse to address Administrator Wolfe’s misdeeds.”
